

Chapter Studies

This provides a beginning understanding to a single chapter of the Bible. Useful for introductory or overview lessons.

Preparation:

- Read your chosen chapter or passage at least five times.
  - Read it in a Bible without previous notes. Let it be fresh.
  - Read it aloud without stopping (at least the first few times).
  - Read it in several different contemporary, reliable translations. Biblegateway.com can be used for other translations.
- Caption: Give the chapter a short, descriptive, memorable title to help you remember it.
  - Ex. 1 Corinthians 13— “Love”      Hebrews 11— “Heroes of the Faith”
- Contents: Describe, summarize, paraphrase, outline, or make a list of the major points in a chapter. Don’t try to interpret it, just make observations of its contents.
- Chief People: List the most important people in the chapter.
  - Who are the main people in this chapter?
  - Why are they included?
  - What is significant about them?
  - Write down your reasons for choosing certain people as the chief ones of this chapter.
- Choice Verse: Choose a verse that summarizes the whole chapter or one that applies to the people in your small group.
  - There may not always be a key verse.
  - On occasion you may want to pick a verse from which you will be writing your application, a verse that you believe God wants to apply to our lives.
- Challenges: List any difficulties you may have with the passage.
  - Are there any statements or ideas you do not understand?
  - Are there any statements or ideas that the people in your small group may struggle with?
- Cross-References: Using cross-references in your resources, look up other verses that help clarify what the chapter is talking about. Study Bibles or blueletterbible.org
- Christ Seen: Be alert for statements that tell you something about Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit, or God the Father.
  - What can I learn about the nature of Jesus from this chapter?
  - What attributes of God in Christ are illustrated here?
- Central Lessons: Write down the major principles, insights, and lessons you learn from this chapter.
  - Why does God want this passage in the Bible?
  - What does he want to teach me from this chapter?
  - What is the central thought the writer is trying to develop?
- Conclusion: Apply this!
  - How do these truths apply to me personally?
  - What specifically am I going to do about them?

All methods and ideas are taken from Rick Warren’s Bible Study Methods.
Warren, Rick. Rick Warren's Bible Study Methods: Twelve Ways You Can Unlock God's Word. Zondervan, 2006.

Lesson Format:

Title: The passage you are studying—the caption.

Introduction: Provide a short activity, ice breaker, or thought provoking question to focus the group's thoughts on the topic for the day.

Lesson Body:

- Read the chapter or passage in the group.
  - You can split it among different people if it's a longer section.
- After they have read it for themselves. Explain your studies to ensure that they understood.
  - Point out the content of the chapter.
  - Introduce them to the chief people and explain why they are important.
- Ask for their thoughts on the passage. This is also a great time to ask a question about the passage that either spurs discussion or guides them to the main ideas. This is where you can address their challenges. (If it is beneficial to discussion, you may present your own challenges as a way to encourage them to think more deeply about the passage.)
- After you or the discussion has brought up the Christ seen and/or the central lesson, guide them to other meaningful cross-references to support their understanding.

Conclusion: Discuss how this chapter can apply to our lives. As much as you can, make the application personal, practical, possible, and provable (see "Basic Principles for Bible Study").

-Make sure you can give examples of how this passage applies to your life before you ask others.

-Suggestion: A great take-away for this lesson would be to encourage them to memorize the choice verse.

-How will they remember this throughout the week?

-How will they understand the importance of this?

All methods and ideas are taken from Rick Warren's Bible Study Methods.

Warren, Rick. Rick Warren's Bible Study Methods: Twelve Ways You Can Unlock God's Word. Zondervan, 2006.